BOUT IN ARMORY CALLED OFF BY COLONEL BATES

Dundee Starts West When His Battle with Welsh Is "Postponed."

By IGOR.

Freddie Welsh and Johnny Dundee did not box at the 1st Regiment Armory to-morrow night. The bout which was the subject of so much comment between Governor Whitman and Dundee, was called off by Colonel Bates.

It was said that when the contradictory reports had been given, the powers that be in full possession of the situation, decided to postpone the boxing bout, as well as others, which were to be held at the armory.

QUICK WORK MARKS THE WRESTLING BOUTS

Lurich Pins Isra to Mat in Thirty-nine Seconds.

The crowd that went to the Manhattan Opera House last night to witness the series of bouts in the international wrestling tournament actually got home shortly after 10 o'clock, or could have, for all the bouts were finished a few minutes after that hour.

It has been the invariable custom for the wrestlers to work until midnight, at least, before they finished their work, and then the finish matches usually ended in draws.

But last night was different, and the "finish" hour was the shortest of the night. Not only that, it was probably the shortest match between professional wrestlers ever seen. George Lurich, the Russian, pinned the shoulders of Anton Isra, of Austria, to the mat in thirty-nine seconds with a double arm lock.

Lurich, who used to be world's champion at Greco-Roman style, has been wrestling up for a week or ten days with the expressed intention of going after the best men in the tournament in one, two, three order. He and Isra had hardly come out on the mat last night and started to spar for an opening when Lurich secured an arm lock on Isra's left arm and jerked the Austrian off his feet and flat on his back.

Before the audience realized what had happened, George Lurich had blown his whistle, signifying that the bout was over.

Isra appeared bewildered and did not awake to the situation until Lurich had shaken his hand and clapped him on the back in friendly fashion. Isra went against the best man in the tournament without having his shoulders pinned and Lurich's lightning victory was a sensation.

The "Masked Marvel" had no better luck with Peter J. Delaney, the "human spring," than any of the others who have tried to uncoil the Russian from his self-toe holds, and the bout was declared a draw at the end of the twenty-minute period.

Dundee did not let the grass grow under his feet. As soon as he heard that he had no chance of a fight with Welsh, he was hopped aboard a train and started west, where he has a flinty opponent to kill.

Welsh will continue training, as he has no Eddie McAndrews to fight. He will be in the Olympia. The boxing commission still is hoping to overcome the prejudice against boxing in the armory, there is a strong feeling that the boxing commission will be able to hold bouts even professional in regiment quarters.

It has been a week of one disappointment after another in boxing. It was the illness of Phil Bloom, who was to have fought against the champion, which was the first disappointment. Then came the illness of the champion, which was the second disappointment. Then came the illness of the champion, which was the third disappointment.

MORE ACTIVITY IN MADISON AVE.

Four Parcels at 32d Street Corner, Assessed at $342,000, Sold.

INVESTOR GETS LOFT HELD AT $225,000

Structure a Nine Story Building at Fourth Avenue and 28th Street.

Four parcels at the southeast corner of Madison av. and 32d st. were sold yesterday by Albert H. Ashforth, Inc. They were disposed of, according to the brokers, to a client of Fraser & Spier, represented by Lawrence McGuire, to Walter D. Hall. The parcels are appraised by the city at $342,000.

Two of the properties are four story dwelling houses, at 147 and 149 Madison av. Title to the former stands in the name of H. V. Cockcroft. It is on a lot 24x100 ft. and is assessed at $88,000. Title to 149 stands in the name of W. L. Sutphin. It is on a lot of the same size and assessed at $132,000. The other two parcels are two story business buildings at 23 and 30 East 32d st., each on a lot 20x98.9 ft. Title to the former stands in the name of Mr. Sutphin, and it is assessed at $56,000. Title to the latter stands in the name of Mr. Cockcroft and is assessed at the same amount.

The combined plot covers an area of approximately 10,000 square feet. It will likely be improved with a future with a big commercial building. The Hall-Brown Corporation has sold for Samuel A. Herzog to a client of William L. Levy, attorney, for investment. The building at 23 and 30 East 32d st. is a five story building, on plot 41x88.9 ft., adjoining the northwest corner of Fourth av. The building is fully rented and will be operated by the Hall-Brown Corporation. It was held at $225,000.

Mr. Herzog obtained the 28th st. building last May in an exchange with John S. Melcher for the six story loft building at 25 and 27 West 32d st. And just at present these seem to be further away from any settlement. It will soon be two years before any lightweight championship was fought, whereas the championship holder should be compelled to fight or defend his title at least once every eight months. Welsh, being a very smart young business man, has no intention of risking his title until forced into a championship debate. And even then the forcing will have to be abnormally powerful.

So far as the heavyweight class is involved, Mr. Willard has about as much to do just now as the Berlin home guard. He might challenge himself, but there seems to be nothing else of any moment around. Not that Mr. Willard is any superman, any unbeatable project. No proof has ever been offered that he is any wonder. But it takes less than three-threes of a wonder to go against the next best of the present heavyweight crop.

R. G. F. So far as one knows now, both McLaughlin and Johnston will again come East for the lawn tennis championship. There is very little likelihood that either will be absent.

There is one dirty activity that peace in baseball will curb this season. We shall no more have Mr. B. Kauff leaping lightly from one league back to another, frequently pausing between leaps hardly long enough to light a cigarette.

Half Strides. The greatest got-ter in the realm of play is Confidence that hits a snag.

For the entry who is sure of winning can tumble faster than a steel girder dropped from a skyscraper if he suddenly bumps into the conclusion that perhaps he might get licked, after all.

One Reason. Old King Cole was a merry old soul— And merrily well he fared; But he never had his contract end At the time peace was declared.

To live just a while in clover, To find out he was up for sale, And the cruel war was over.

"What is an amateur?" is still one of the raging queries of the hour. But, in spite of all the recent discussion, we haven't changed the answer we evolved four years ago, viz., "Any one who can get away with it."
